Semi-Public Telephone Service

1. Service Description

1. Semi-Public telephone service is a message-rate service furnished at SaskTel's discretion at locations of the following types:
   (a) Where there is a combination of use by the public and the customer, including locations at which the primary use is by the public for outgoing service but the furnishing of public telephone service is not warranted, in SaskTel's opinion.
   (b) Where there is collective use of the service by guests, members, business clients or similar occupants of the premises and business flat-rate or business message-rate service is unsuitable or prohibited by this Tariff.

2. Semi-Public telephone service includes a Touch-Tone coin telephone. It is not furnished on a foreign-exchange basis. Semi-Public telephone service may be provisioned for outgoing only service.

3. Semi-Public telephone service may be listed in the telephone directory. The customer is entitled to directory privileges associated with regular business service.

2. Conditions of Service

1. Semi-Public Telephone service is liable to termination in the case of non-payment of account or violation of SaskTel's regulations under the same rules that govern ordinary exchange service.

2. Extension service will not be provided with Semi-Public Telephone Service.
